AND WHEREAS, it is confidently alleged by members of the Democratic party, that the nommetica of the Ilon Gerham Parks, for the of fice of Governor, by a Republican Convention, holden at Augusta, on the 28th day of June last, involves objections of vital importance to the Republicans of this county, as requires that the har should be fully inquired into and made known, which allegations are that the said Parks does not recognize nor feel abliged to sustain regular nominations at the ancrifice of his individual preferences and projudices, but has repeatedly asserted in go's mace and effect, that if another individual spoken of as a candidate for said office of Governor should be nominated by life of this paper will not now persait us to go suid Convention neither himself nor his triends ed, he the consequences a hat they hight; and that the said Parks has since said Convention, admitted to his friends that he had said to different individuals of the Democratic party, that he should have opposed the election of the individual spoken of if he had been nominated.

Therefore, believing as we do, that the best interest of the Republican party require a rixid adherence to regular nominations, we cannot consent to give our support to any candidate who does not acknowledge this fundamental principle of the Demogratic creed. And as we have in our possession, as we believe, unquestionable evidence of Colonel Parks' having doubted that they also were convinced that there made the foregoing assertion, we consider it a termination not to give him our support, unless. it shall appear from further investigation, that, our information is incorrect, and to request that with the doings of the Convention.

DEAR SIR. Yours of the 3d invent is before me. In answer, I have to say that while at Augusta, at the meeting of the State Convention in June last, in replying to some pertinent question of Gustavus G. Cushman, Esq. of this place sance that he (Col. Parks) had said, that into any concealed cause that may exist, which if Col. Hodgdon should be nominated by the Convention regularly or irregularly, he should not support him, neither would his friends, but would not only oppose the nomination but the election it involved, be the consequences what they might Mr. Cushman denied positively that Call Parks had said an Fainh thing But soon after my return to Bangor, Mr. Cushman called on me and said, that he had an apology to_make_to me, for said he "I have told Col Parks what you said of him, and he replied by saying that he hoped I did not deny it, and said, I have said so, and now say so." Mr. Cushman blin to say to ..., that he (Parket had that the same to F Q J Straith Enq of Portland, and Nathan Chifford, Enq. of Newfield, and that I might make what use of it I pleased. That every one who is supported as a candidate for any office in this country by the Democratic Party, must expent to be most fillently and unjustly assailed by the opposition prints, name experience fully shows. That I have in this way received an unusual share of their notice and abuse, is well known. My opinion upon morals and politics have been most cruelly assiled by men in private conversation, and at a distance, who would have blushed if detected further stated that Col. The probably remark d that he would not have been why he "dudged the guestion." was treated by Col. Parks' friends, can it be prosecuted but for political reasons, and possibly that if the law was never put in execution but which Col. Parks and myself differ, and for the gratification of private malice, and not [duty we owe to our political friends in other the subject to be openly investigated? We fer the furtherance of Justice, or the punish parts of the State, to make this public declarate think not; and we believe it to be due to the ment of crime, it had better be on the statute democratic party, to furnish them with the Book. But In infer from any thing I said, at charges and the manner in which they have that or any other time, that I approved of, or justified licentiousness, is unjust to me, and utterly without toundation in truth, and what neither of the affidavit makers believe. I have never done so and trust I never shall. With regard to the second remark, I have said that the Sheriff ought not to have been removed at the time he was. I hold that every man tial trial. In this case, (the charges against the late Sheriff, if true, being most signally revolting to every virtuous mind) the whigs all excited by the aidor of political feelings, many of three who aided to get him his office, (of whom it is well known, I was not one,) and many opposers of his appointment seemed almost to v.e with each other, in inflaming the public mind against him. During this state of feeling he was removed, as I understood, and with this I found fault, for it was virtually saying to bijury of the country, who by the laws are his constitutional judges, that we, the Governor and Council, have already tried this man for the the way he suggests. He manifested as my same crime for which he is now arraigned before you, and we have found him guilty, thus adding the weight of Executive judgment to the aiready inflamed passions of the public, to prevent his obtaining a fair trial. For this opinion, I can quote high authority, and such as probably no. Whig will gained ... When a former sheriff of a neighboring county while we' were a component part of Massachusetts, was accused of the murder of his wite, as he mous a crime as he can well commit, the executive of Massachusetts confinued him in office until after his trial, when he was either re-moved, or he resigned. And such was a right course. He was left to have a fair and impartial trial by a jury of his country; without the weight of Executive judgement being thrown into the scale against him. In such cases, aftertrial, if acquitted, or after discharge from recog nisance, if no bill was found, it would be right and proper, nay further, it would in my opinion be the duly of the Executive to enquire into the matter, and even if no positive proof was ad-

> either officially or morally. I have extended these remarks to some length it was generally known in this place, and it was because I am but too well aware of the brutel known to Cul. Parks. Col. P's friends tot affempts made to represent me the slave and that I intended to make the statement public advocate of every vice, by those who well know through the press. One of his most intion from personal acquaintance, the falsehood of every word they utter. You well know that I alshor demoralizing doctrines and principles; that I ain no advocate of the repeal of the law against more business here. I did not choose to be in adultery, but that I wish it put into execution equally and justly against all offenders, and not to be made as it too frequently, nay almost always has been the case, so far as my knowledge in the courts has extended, an instrument for the gratification of private malice and re-

enake removals, for public officers should be above all reasonable suspicion of doing wrong

With regard to Mr. Hill's affidavit, striking out the last part of it (in which he is mistaken) and adding after the words "accused of ' the words "before conviction or distarge," It would be correct.

 I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your friend. A.c. TOODIN W TATEL W

MR EDITOR: Do me the favor to publish in the Whig & Courier Col. Parks' letter which appeared in the last Eastern Republican, in answer to affidavits made by Messis. Hill, Fenno and myself, in relation to his_sentiments on the crinic of adultory and the laws against adul-

It will be perceived, on an attentive perucal of his letter, that he does not explicitly deny any material facts stated by Mr. Fenno or myself, yet he attempts to gloss over these facts and give them a version wholly at variance with the truth. The principal charge I made against Mr. Parks was that he said "The law Total not the little of the the defend of a le topical ed." I also stated that he defended and vope pofted the character of the late sherily passing high encomiums on his character and impeate. ing the motives of those who prosecuted him. This I did, because it was a part of the conversation, and I wished to state the general aubject of the conversation, and lay the whole of it before the public. -

The circumstances under which the conversation took place, were these. It was in the store of Smith & Fenno, within a short period before the nomination of Col. Parks for Governor after the dissolution of the partnership be tween Nour-e & Smith; and after the for-nation of the partnership between Smith & Penno. Col. Parks was in the store when I entered it and so were the other gentlemen to whom Col. Pa. A. fluges. Mr. McCrillis and myself did not commence the conversation "about the late Sheriff," and in relation "to the propriety of repealing the law against subject commenced between repeal of the a tute against the orime of the Colonel Parks did not that occurs on advocate repeal of the a tute against the orime of the Colonel Parks and McCriffis; which of them first tery. material that was said during the discussion Col. Parks did not state that he was counse for the late sheriff, nor did he speak of him a his client. The first internation I had that Cd Parks was retained as his counsel was after to affidavit was published. I presume that Cal Parks acted in some capacity as his count though he was not at heme when the investing tion before the many istrato tock place. Perhaps in the resignation of the manner, in which that capacity Col. Parks ACTED as his counsel. Col. Parks does not state in his letter that did not in that conversation, advocate the repair of the adultery law, neither does he deny the he is in favor of the repeal of that he ... own way on the subject, and he best know which he evidently endeavors to deceive the people.

Ist. Col Parka states I was in the store when he entered it. This statement by him is fully 2d. Col. Parks states that Mr. " Fenno Rue Clerk behind the Counter." false, so far as it relates to Fenno's being a cler at that time. Mr. Fenno was not then a cleft but a partner with Mr. Smith. He was onthe other side of the counter, but I am not awar that this circumstance ought to invalidate he statement. Had he then been a Clerk, pethin he would have been a competent witness Cal Parks has the reputation of being a Liwyer, k can judge.

3d Col. Parks states that he found Mr Me Crittia, and myself it discussing the property of repealing the law against adultery." This title ment is fulse.

4th. Col. Parks states that " In the course of a moment or two, I (Parks) was appealed to some way or other, and amused at the warming displayed, I hatened to their remarks and door less made some myself." This statement is substance, fulse. "He was not appealed to a warmth as any one present; and made mon remarks, taking the lead in the conversation.

5th. The whole statement of Col. Parks, relation to the connect extron is a subterfuge, it tended evidently, to give a false color to the conversation and divert the public mind for the odinusness of the sentiments he advanced.

Having said thus much in relation to the a pression of Col. Parks' sentiments in the above conversation, I deem it due to myself and a Col. Parks to say that I have never on any ocusion, either in public or private, charged him with being a levelling, destroying, revolutions ing, Fanny-Weight Loco Foco, or with beings centious in his habits.

In giving to the public, his sentiments uer pressed in that conversation, I do not conside hat I have attacked his private character, uthis personal habits. Ilis sentiments on that we ect, were expressed treely and without reserm I regarded them of a public rather than & print nature; and that the people were entitled to know the sentiments of those who offer these enclars as candidates for office.

"One word more in relation to the manneral giving my affidavit. I have frequently spoket of this conversation, and so fir as I can political friends threatened, on more than ou occasion, that if I did do it, he would bru down my character and prevent my doing all midated. I mentioned to one of Col. P's friets that I was welling the allidavit, and requested him to inform Col. Parks of the fact. Held me he would if he saw him I made the if davit and did not permit it to be published me the second day after it was made with a ref
